

How to get to UKSA

Getting to Southampton by road

Our Address: UKSA, Arctic Road, Cowes, Isle of Wight, PO31 7PQ

Located on the UK South Coast, Southampton is the gateway to the Isle of Wight and is easily accessible from all parts of the country by road.

From the Midlands and the North: use the M6 or A1/M1, M42, M40 and A34 links or alternatively M6 and M1, M25, M3 to Jct 14, A33 to City Centre and Waterfront

From Wales and Avon: use the M4 to Jct 13, A34, M3 to Jct 14, A33 to City Centre and Waterfront or M4 to Jct 18, A46, A36, M27, M271 to City Centre and Waterfront

From London, Heathrow, Essex, East Anglia: take the M25 or A316 and join the M3 motorway south to Jct 14, A33 to City Centre and Waterfront

From Gatwick Airport & Channel ports: take the M23 or M20 as appropriate, M25, M3 south to Jct 14, A33 to City Centre and Waterfront

From the South East: take the A27 or A272, or A3M, M27 to Jct 5 and follow signs to City Centre and Waterfront

From the South West: take M5, A30 or A358, A303, A36, M27 to Jct 5 and follow signs to City Centre and Waterfront

Continue to follow the sign marked Dock Gates 4-10 and brown English Tourist Board sign to WestQuay and Waterfront. Continue through one set of traffic lights, keeping to the outside lane. Bear right at a set of traffic lights on to the A33 and follow the signs to Dock Gates 4-8, WestQuay and Waterfront.

Drive through a series of traffic lights until you reach the Mayflower roundabout with the De Vere Grand Harbour Hotel on the left and the Holiday Inn on the right. Take the right hand lane, follow the sign marked Dock Gate 4 Waterfront, and you will find Red Funnel's Terminal 1 on the right, signposted Red Funnel Dock Gate 7.

For Terminal 2 (Red Jet Hi-Speed service) continue past Terminal 1 (Dock Gate 7) and turn right at the traffic lights in to Town Quay Marina.

Getting to Southampton by train

Arriving by train, Southampton Central is served by rail services from all parts of the UK, from where the free CityLink shuttle bus will drop you outside either Red Funnel terminal (National Rail Enquiries - 08457 484950).

From London; South West Trains operate frequent services between Waterloo (via: Clapham Jct, Woking, Basingstoke, Winchester, Southampton Airport) and Southampton Central taking a little over an hour. Convenient connections, including Eurostar services to and from Brussels, Paris and Lille, are available at London Waterloo.

Virgin Cross Country Trains operate from Scotland, the North, Midlands and Birmingham; Wessex Passenger Trains run from South Wales through Bristol and Salisbury; South West Trains run services from Weymouth, Poole and Bournemouth and Connex provide services to Portsmouth and Brighton.

On arrival at Southampton exit the train station and catch the FREE CityLink Service (painted blue) runs every 10 minutes between the rail station and Red Funnel's terminals via the West Quay shopping centre.

Getting to Southampton by air

A Rail-Air link provides a useful coach connection between Heathrow and Woking Rail Station, from where a frequent rail service operates to Southampton. Connex operate services from Gatwick Airport to Southampton (direct or via Clapham Jct). From Luton or Stansted Airports catch a train into London and make your way to London Waterloo station for services to Southampton.

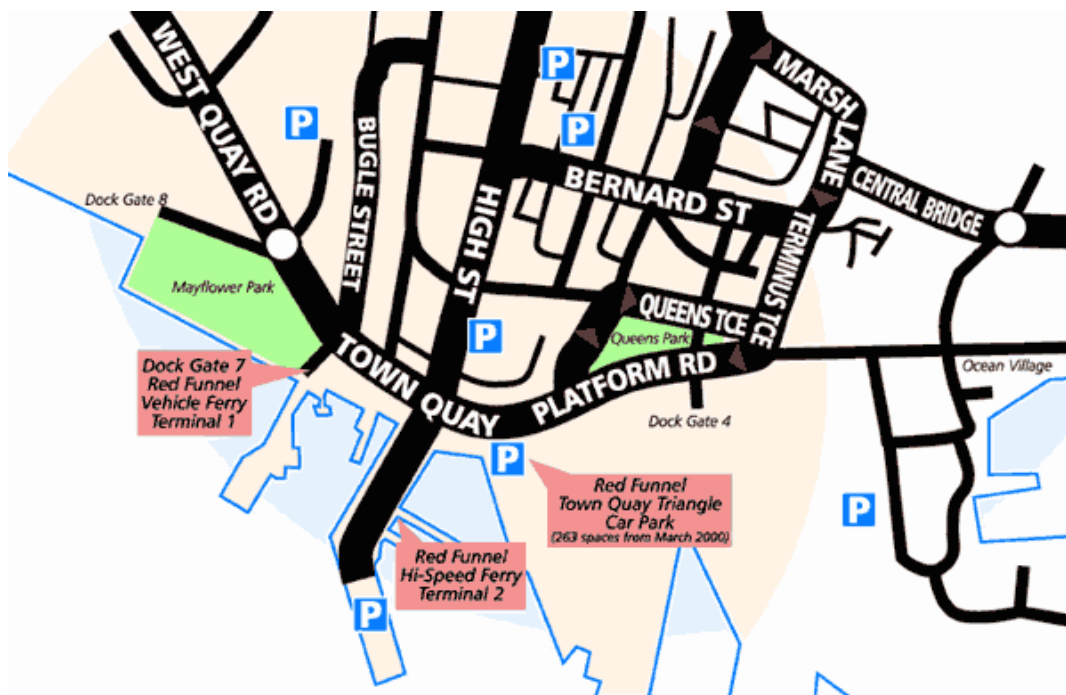

Southampton Airport is served by trains operating between London Waterloo and Southampton Central. If arriving at Bournemouth Airport there are direct trains between Bournemouth and Southampton.

Southampton International Airport (Tel +44 (0) 23 8062 0021) has internal flights from Aberdeen, Alderney, Belfast City, Edinburgh, Glasgow, Guernsey, Isles of Scilly, Jersey, Leeds, Manchester, Newcastle, Newquay. European services operate to/from Amsterdam, Barcelona, Brussels, Dublin, Geneva, Milan, Nice, Paris with international links from key European hubs. Holiday destinations include, Alicante, Ibiza, Majorca, Malaga, Malta, Minorca, Neapolitan Riviera, Sardinia and Tenerife.

The airport has excellent road and rail connections. Catch any westbound train to Southampton Central or bus service 101 which stops at Southampton City Centre.

Car parking in Southampton

Parking is available at the Town Quay Triangle car park off Platform Road and Town Quay Road. The City Council operate other public car parks in the Waterfront area.

Red Funnel Car parking prices

Tickets can be purchased from the Pay & Display machines in the car park.

Up to 12 hrs - £16

Up to 24 hrs - £26